L: Arise, shine—for your light has come.

L: In the darkness, a star still shines.

All: We come as seekers, drawn by wonder and hope, still searching for light.

L: God’s light appears in unexpected places—

All: In humble homes, ordinary lives, and open hearts.

L: Come, all who long for meaning, mercy, and joy.

All: We come to follow the light and be bearers of the light. We arise. We shine.

Holy and searching God, you call us out of the dark and meet us in our longing. We come with questions, with hopes not fully named, with hearts still learning how to trust.
